Genticorum

Celtic rooted Francophone trio promises a foot-stompin' good time

Friday, November 4th at 7:30 pm

St. Albert, AB – With fiery Acadian fiddles, frenzied rhythms, and flawless harmonies, critically acclaimed power trio Genticorum brings a sound all their own to the Arden Theatre on November 4. Blending traditional Quebecois folk songs with modern folk-influenced compositions, one of the most sought after exponents of French Canadian culture are known for their distinctive sound, sense of humour, and electric stage presence.

"True to its heritage, Genticorum has created something exquisitely passionate that quickens the pulse and forces the feet to tap. The sheer energy of their performances and the joy they emit translate instantly and infectiously to audiences."

~ Exclaim!

Incorporating the dynamism of contemporary North American and European folk cultures, Genticorum has become a fixture on the international world, traditional, folk, and Celtic music circuit. The trio – Pascal Gemme, Alexandre de Grosbois-Garand, and Yann Falquet – firmly rooted in the soil of their native land, weave precise and intricate fiddle and flute work, gorgeous vocal harmonies, energetic foot percussion, and guitar and bass accompaniment into a big and jubilant musical feast. Genticorum exudes undeniable musical refinement and irresistible raw energy that makes them a supreme crowd pleaser. Having performed more than 700 concerts worldwide, they are showing no sign of slowing down.

The trio's first three albums met with critical acclaim in Canada, the United States, and Great Britain, assuring the band a brilliant future. Their latest album, Nagez Rameurs, features infectiously playful arrangements with a sonic richness that has timeless appeal. Genticorum's original sound and style has earned them JUNO and Felix Award nominations, as well as a Canadian Folk Music Award for Best Ensemble in 2005.
